

BARRON RYAN'S

Keyboard Confidential

GOOD FRIENDS • GREAT MUSIC

Bringing the concert to you.

Keyboard Confidential is the perfect opportunity to bring friends together to enjoy your home, each other and beautiful music. Renowned pianist Barron Ryan will give a sensational yet personal concert that your guests will talk about for years to come. All it takes is a little willingness on your part.

Throw a party.

Hosting an evening of Keyboard Confidential is simple and straightforward. First, either own a grand piano, rent one, or be friends with someone willing to let you borrow theirs. Second, invite 10, 20, or more of your closest friends over for a concert that's awe-inspiring yet intimate. Then have a great time as you and your guests experience the unique joy of being together while hearing Barron Ryan make your piano sound the best it possibly can.

Classic meets cool.

Barron Ryan is a music phenomenon, with his "passion and love for music actively evident throughout his entire performance." A classical pianist by training, Barron also draws upon his love of jazz and ragtime to make performances that are as sensitive as they are scintillating. He performs jazz-infused classical music like that found on his debut solo album, Classical with Attitude, and also plays astoundingly virtuosic transcriptions by some of the best jazz pianists ever. Audiences from the US, Japan, and Israel agree that whether you're looking for music with more heritage or more edge, Barron Ryan will give you a performance that's timeless.

"Absolute talent!
Priceless time well spent
among friends."

"Keyboard Confidential
is a joy. Barron is as personable as he is skilled, and given the setting, his music couldn't be more accessible."

"How lovely when all
the parts come together
to form something so close to perfection that it won't leave your mind!"
